

ASL Interpreted Tour at Maker's Mark

Join a Maker's Mark Bourbon Specialist and ASL interpreter for a tour of the distillery & campus. A Maker's Mark distillery tour with a focus on accessibility for the Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing community.

This tour that will teach you about our history and how we make our bourbon. This tour is mostly outdoors (so dress weather appropriate), and consists of about 1/2 mile of walking. This tour will take you through our campus and a few of the production buildings. Of course, you'll finish with a guided tasting. This tour will last approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes.

All tour times are in the Eastern Time Zone. Please plan to arrive no later than 20 mins before your tour start time. All tours must be booked online in advance. No tour tickets will be sold onsite.

Saturday, March 30th at 11:45am

$26 per ticket, available for purchase at <https://www.makersmark.com/distillery/visit-us>

Maker's
 Mark®

