

Hearing Loss Association of America Chapter in Formation

Bowling Green, Kentucky

A Non-Profit Self-Help Organization Dedicated to Education, Support, and Advocacy for People Who do Not Hear Well and Those Around Them.

Future Meetings and Time: First Tuesday of Each Month at 6:30PM

Location: Home Instead Training Center, 2475 Scottsville Rd, Bowling Green, KY
(In Bowling Green, on Scottsville Rd/Hwy 231, at traffic light #7, turn southwest onto Campbell
Ln. On Campbell Ln, turn east at first traffic light, Greenwood Mall entrance. See HOME
INSTEAD sign on building on left.)

In Case of Bad Weather: Check WBKO television or WBVR 96.7 radio WEATHER ALERTS.

UPCOMING TOPICS OF INTEREST

February: “YOUR HEARING AND YOUR HOSPITAL VISIT”

Guest Speaker: Gayle Atwell RN, CHC Loss Prevention Specialist

“What we should expect and what we should provide for better communication”.

March: “ENHANCING YOUR LIFE WITH HEARING ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY”

Guest Speaker: Ed Schickel, Former Co-State KY Chapter Coordinator

“Devices other than hearing aids which make sound accessible for people with a hearing loss”.

April: “THEATER ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY”

Guest Speaker: Stacy Ridgway, Manager of Access and Volunteer Services, The Kentucky Center for Performing Arts, Louisville, KY.

“Hearing access options for the enjoyment of stage performances”.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: 270-846-3800 OR 270-782-7329

www.hearinglosskyhome.org, www.hearingloss.org