

Resources in the Louisville Metro Area to Assist with Your Hearing Loss

Our mission: The Hearing Loss Association of America (HLAA) opens the world of communication to people with hearing loss through information, education, support and advocacy. Our local chapter and members are the best resources for help with living better with hearing loss. More information about resources and informative presentations at our meetings are found at:

Become part of the nation's largest consumer advocacy group for people with hearing loss.

-Michelle Niehaus, LCSW with the Kentucky Department for Behavioral Health has teamed with our Kentuckiana Chapter to offer a Support Group held in Louisville. Find dates and times in our Chapter newsletter, or contact us. The Support Group is free and open to the public.

-The Kentucky Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (KCDHH) is a rich resource for all Kentuckians with hearing loss to keep us connected and safe. The KCDHH has a Telecommunications Access Program (TAP) that includes a long list of specialized telephone equipment is offered at no charge to those with a documented hearing loss. For more information about the program and other KCDHH resources visit:
