Chair's Report

Mr. Evans began by reporting that Gerry Gordon-Brown (KAD) and Alexander Ansley (A.G. Bell) have been reappointed to their Commission seats by Governor Beshear. He also mentioned that most evaluations for Executive Director Anita Dowd had been received.

A significant portion of the Chair's report focused on the Board Composition Review. This review, initiated by feedback suggesting a need to restructure the board, is intended to ensure optimal representation for the deaf and hard-of-hearing communities. A subcommittee developed proposed changes, and a survey was conducted to gauge Commissioners' opinions.

The recent survey results showed overwhelming support for several additions: a service provider for deaf and blind individuals (15 yes), replacing AARP with an aging and independent living representative (14 yes), a vocational rehabilitation representative (14 yes), an educational service provider (15 yes), two consumers at large who are deaf or hard of hearing (14 yes), and two service providers who are deaf or hard of hearing (14 yes).

Regarding the implementation of the proposed changes, Ms. Dowd explained that since KCDHH was established by statute, any changes will require action by the General Assembly. She is currently researching state guidelines and regulations concerning board composition, particularly regarding Governor-appointed seats and other potential restrictions, to ensure compliance before finalizing any decisions. Ms. Taylor stressed the importance of understanding these next steps and potential risks, especially concerning the opening of statutes. ELC Secretary Link offered his office's assistance in researching the necessary legal framework. Ms. Dowd confirmed she had already begun discussions with the cabinet and expressed a desire to address this under the current administration, citing a supportive environment. Ms. McCubbin and Mr. Evans highlighted the need to balance statutory requirements with community needs and maintain the representation of deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals on the board. Ms. Niehaus pointed out that many relevant statutes were written shortly after the ADA and that representation needs have evolved. Mr. Evans thanked everyone for their input.

On a personal note, Mr. Evans shared that this would be his last meeting as Chair due to increasing personal commitments, though he will remain on the board. He expressed his gratitude for the board's support during his tenure. The Commissioners also expressed their thanks to Mr. Evans for his service.

THE CHAIR'S REPORT WAS ACCEPTED AS READ.

Agency Report

---

Ms. Dowd began the Agency Report by noting staffing changes. She celebrated the hiring of Mikayla Qualls as Interpreter II and noted that decisions on the Executive Administrative Secretary and Information Officer positions were pending.

Ms. Dowd next reported on a recent "Common Ground" meeting involving various organizations serving deaf and hard-of-hearing children. She highlighted ongoing challenges with Kentucky's early intervention system, stating it often fails to appropriately serve all eligible children despite regulation changes. The agency is exploring ways to navigate these issues and is working to align with new HERSA grant requirements for the EHDI system, which now emphasize language acquisition. This led to a discussion about board representation for early intervention: Mr. Evans suggested adding an early intervention representative to the board. Ms. Niehaus proposed that a Public Health representative (where early intervention is housed) could take her current CHFS seat. Ms. Roof suggested a mandated early intervention position on the board. Secretary Link inquired about the fiscal impact of potential legislation, and while no specific costs were put forward, the cost of not serving the community was noted.

Regarding the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE), Ms. Dowd shared plans to meet with KDE representatives to foster a supportive relationship. Ms. Dowd expressed that a significant goal for KCDHH is to become a testing site for various interpreter certifications to help address the shortage of qualified interpreters in schools. Nancy Perry underscored the problem of schools hiring individuals with inadequate sign language skills and emphasized the need for proper certification like the SLPI.

Turning to new developments, Ms. Dowd noted a growing relationship between KCDHH and the Department of Dementia. The Department is increasingly recognizing the link between hearing loss and dementia and plans to integrate hearing loss considerations into its initiatives, including public education and support for the DHH community regarding dementia care.

Mr. Evans stressed the lack of coverage for hearing aids under Kentucky Medicaid for adults, contrasting it with Ohio's policy. While a recent bill in the Kentucky General Assembly for children's hearing aids showed promise, it did not pass due to time constraints. Concerns were raised about over-the-counter (OTC) hearing aids, with Ms. Dowd highlighting the problems of improper fitting and user discouragement. Past attempts to include hearing aids in the Telecommunication Access Program (TAP) were recalled by Ms. Taylor and Rachel Morgan, noting the complexities involved. Mr. Smith questioned the discrepancy in insurance coverage between cochlear implants and hearing aids. Mr. Evans clarified that Medicare generally does not cover hearing aids, while Medicaid coverage varies by state.

To conclude, Ms. Dowd provided an update on the Moore Safe Nights Program. Issues with some radios not functioning correctly are being addressed, with distribution paused until the issues have been resolved. The volunteer nature of local emergency management personnel presents challenges in troubleshooting.

THE AGENCY REPORT WAS ACCEPTED AS READ.

Before New Business began; Laura Kogut was recognized for her many years of service as a CART provider for the Commission. Commissioners thanked her and wished her well on her upcoming retirement.

Old Business/New Business/Open Forum

To open the Commission's yearly elections, Ms. Kelly was re-elected as the Service Provider representative. Ms. Hatzel and Ms. Taylor were unanimously approved as Board Emeritus members for a one-year term.

In the Executive Board officer elections, Ms. McCubbin was elected as the new Chair. Ms. Roof was elected as Vice-Chair. After a self-nomination from Ms. Harris and the existing nomination for Ms. Kelly, Ms. Kelly was elected as Secretary. Ms. Taylor reminded the board that the new officers would select two members at large for the Executive Board, and anyone interested in serving should express that to the new leadership. Mr. Evans assured Ms. McCubbin of a transition meeting and ongoing support for the new Executive Board.

COMMISSION CHAIR'S REPORT

Mr. Evans opened the Chair's Report by asking Ms. Dowd to report on relevant updates to the Commission Board composition review.

Ms. Dowd met with Secretary Link, Deputy Secretary Wise, and the Cabinet's legal counsel regarding potential changes to KCDHH's governing statute. Secretary Link expressed two main concerns: that opening statute is always risky, and that a short legislative session may limit the Governor's ability to support issues not directly related to the budget but stated that the Cabinet would set a meeting to discuss moving forward. Ms. Dowd later reached out to those that were in the meeting and noted her concern regarding the current political climate surrounding DEI initiatives. This has led her to question if this would be the right time to attempt modifying the statute. Secretary Link stated that he would support KCDHH decision either way.

Ms. Niehaus suggested conducting a formal risk assessment to make an objective decision. She proposed speaking directly with Secretary Link to understand the risks versus the benefits of moving forward now.

Ms. McCubbin asked for clarification on what actions could be taken that do not require legislative change. Ms. Dowd confirmed that the makeup of the board is defined by law and cannot be altered without opening the statute.

Ms. Niehaus proposed the creation of a study group for the next 1-2 years. This group would function as a pilot project, inviting the types of representatives they would want on the board to discuss what representation should look like in 2025.

This idea received broad support from the board members to continue the work without the immediate risk of legislative action. Ms. Taylor supported the idea based on her positive experience leading a past study group for the deaf-blind community. She stressed that for it to be successful, it must have a strong, detailed proposal with clear goals and action items, noting that it will be a lot of work.

Ultimately, the board reached a consensus to take the study group concept back to the existing subcommittee. The subcommittee will discuss the idea, including Ms. Dowd's reservations and Ms. Niehaus's proposal, and develop a tangible plan to move forward. This plan will then be brought back to the full board by the new chair, Ms. McCubbin.

SPECIAL TOPIC: BOARD TRANSITION

Mr. Evans will schedule a transition meeting with incoming officers Ms. McCubbin, Ms. Roof, and Ms. Kelly to discuss agenda planning, best practices, and other operational details.

The new executive officers (Ms. McCubbin, Ms. Roof, Ms. Kelly) are currently tasked with selecting two members at large for the e-board.

Ms. Kelly noted that Ms. Harris and Jason Smith had expressed interest. Ms. Taylor recommended Ms. Niehaus for consideration, who stated she is willing to be considered. To ensure transparency, a reminder will be sent to all commissioners inviting them to self-nominate for the at-large positions. The bylaws state that the Chair (Ms. McCubbin) appoints these members in consultation with the other officers.

Mr. Evans will work with Ms. McCubbin and staff to finalize the implementation of the new commissioner shared drive.

Ms. Dowd will schedule a day for Ms. McCubbin and Ms. Roof to visit the office for an in-person orientation and to meet the staff.

Ms. Taylor encouraged the new e-board to familiarize themselves with the bylaws, emphasizing their importance in guiding and protecting the board.
